APPENDIX

Introduction to the Idaho Map of Standards for English Learners

Purpose of ELD Standards

English Language Development (ELD) standards describe what English learners know and can do as they develop English language skills and acquire the academic concepts and skills to be able to achieve the state's rigorous language arts standards. The standards show the gradual progression through five ELD levels, starting with a student who has no knowledge of English and begins to acquire skills in listening, speaking, reading, and writing at benchmark stages until reaching English fluency. ELD standards are the onramp to language arts standards and were developed with achievement of the language arts standards as the ultimate objective. Some ELD standards at the Early Fluent and Fluent levels contain wording similar to the Language Arts standards, reflecting this very goal.

One might ask, "Why can't teachers just use language arts standards from an earlier grade level for English learners, rather than the ELD standards?" The answer is that acquisition of a second language is different from acquisition of a first language. The ELD standards follow a research-based progression of second language acquisition, from beginning to advanced language skills. Language arts standards below the English learner's grade level simply are not appropriate as indicators or expectations of second language acquisition.

Components of the ELD Standards

The Idaho ELD standards describe what English learners at four grade spans know and can do in four domains at five proficiency levels. The grades spans are K–2, 3–5, 6–8, and 9–12. The four domains are listening, speaking, reading, and writing. The five levels are Beginning, Advanced Beginning, Intermediate, Early Fluent, and Fluent. The ELD standards include the following three components:

- ELD Level Descriptors for grades K–12
- ELD Standards Statements for each grade span

- ELD Objectives within each standard

An overview of each of these components is given below.

ELD Level Descriptors

The ELD Level Descriptors describe what English learners in grades K–12 generally know and can do upon reaching mastery at each of five proficiency levels. The levels are labeled as follows:

Level 1: Beginning

Level 2: Advanced Beginning

Level 3: Intermediate

Level 4: Early Fluent

Level 5: Fluent

These descriptions are general indicators of students' proficiency in English language skills across all grades, K–12. Some adjustment may be necessary when applying the descriptions to students at a specific grade level, especially students at the earlier grades of the K–12 span. For example, kindergarteners do not yet write expanded texts as stated at the Fluent level for K–12 writing skills, but kindergarteners are expected to perform developmentally appropriate precursor skills such as labeling a sequence of story pictures, creating class story books, and writing in journals.

Note that the descriptions indicate what students know and can do upon reaching mastery in the level. For example, a student in the Advanced Beginning level needs to learn how to "read brief text with simple sentences and mostly familiar vocabulary, supported by graphics or pictures." Once the student shows mastery of this reading skill, the student is ready to be challenged to learn the reading skills described at the Intermediate level.

The determination of a student's overall proficiency level is made based on many factors; this overall level does not necessarily mean the student performs in each individual skill at that same level. For example, a student may be performing at the Intermediate level in listening and speaking, but at Advanced Beginning in reading and writing. Likewise, a student may be performing at higher or lower levels on particular skills within a domain; for instance, higher on decoding words but lower on comprehension and making inferences.

ELD Standards Statements

The ELD standards are organized in the same hierarchical system as the Idaho Language Arts standards.

Standard: Domain

Goal: Major skill within the domain

Objective: Description of a specific, measurable skill

There are four Standards for ELD, corresponding to six Language Arts Standards, as show in the chart below.

ELD	Language Arts
Standard 1: Listening	Standard 6: Communication
Standard 2: Speaking
Standard 3: Reading	Standard 1: Reading Process Standard 2: Reading Comprehension Interpretation
Standard 4: Writing	Standard 3: Writing Process Standard 4: Writing Applications Standard 5: Writing Components

The Standards statements describe what students know and can do upon mastery of the Fluent level in the domain overall. Since Fluent level expectations are very close to native-English-speaker grade-level expectations, the Standards statements for ELD are very close to those for Language Arts.

ELD Objectives

The ELD Objectives reflect the skills and knowledge that are most important in instruction and assessment of English learners and link as much as possible to the most important Language Arts Objectives that all students are expected to master. ELD curricula may identify additional skills for classroom instruction.

A meaningful format of ELD Objectives can greatly help educators, especially teachers, to understand the Objectives, their interconnections, and their link to Language Arts Objectives. The ELD Objectives are organized by grouping those that address a similar concept or skill from Beginning to Fluent ELD levels; this group is called a “cluster of ELD Objectives.” Each cluster of ELD Objectives is given a cluster label — a big idea that reflects the essence of all of the linked ELD and Language Arts Objectives. Each cluster resembles a rubric that can be used by teachers for ongoing classroom assessment as well as by state test developers.

The clusters of ELD Objectives are organized in a logical order within each Standard and Goal and follow the Language Arts numbering system. The clusters of ELD Objectives are presented in the format of a map that shows each cluster and one or several linked Language Arts Objectives side-by-side. The purpose of the Idaho Map of Standards for English Learners is to help educators clearly see the relationship between two sets of standards: the state's ELD and Language Arts standards. The organization of the Map is especially useful for a teacher in a multilingual classroom who wants to plan a single language arts lesson that integrates ELD and Language Arts standards.

How to Navigate the Idaho Map of Standards for English Learners

- ❶ Bottom right corner shows grade span and pagination, starting at page 1 for each grade span.
- ❷ ELD Cluster of Objectives and Level column: the leftmost column shows number of each cluster of Objectives according to Standard, Goal, and Objective; the same system used for Language Arts Objectives.
- ❸ ELD level labels are listed at the bottom of page in a legend. Some clusters of Objectives have all five ELD levels, but some combine Early Fluent and Fluent (EF/F).
- ❹ ELD Objectives column: A label for each cluster of Objectives appears in bold type directly to the right of the cluster number. The label is the big idea that represents the essence of all linked ELD and Language Arts Objectives.
- ❺ The ELD Objectives (“text”) for each level in the cluster are listed below the big idea.
- ❻ Language Arts Objectives columns: The Language Arts Objectives along with the state’s reference numbers are listed beneath each grade.

Appendix

The Map contains all English Language Development (ELD) Standards and Objectives, and those Language Arts (LA) Objectives that best link to the ELD Objectives. The appendix contains a chart of all LA Objectives organized by ELD Goals. The LA Objectives are taken directly from the Idaho State Department of Education Language Arts Standards Table; those that appear in the Map have bolded numbers.

A teacher can use the Map to identify particular ELD and matching LA Objectives and then refer to the appendix to find other relevant LA Objectives when designing a comprehensive unit lesson plan for a classroom with both English learners and native English speakers.

	Level 1 Beginning	Level 2 Advanced Beginning	Level 3 Intermediate	Level 4 Early Fluent	Level 5 Fluent
Overall	Students performing at mastery of this level of English language proficiency begin to demonstrate basic communication skills. They exhibit frequent errors in pronunciation, grammar, and writing conventions that often impede meaning.	Students performing at mastery of this level of English language proficiency communicate with increasing ease in a greater variety of social and academic situations. They exhibit frequent errors in pronunciation, grammar, and writing conventions that often impede meaning.	Students performing at mastery of this level of English language proficiency begin to expand the complexity and variety of their communication skills. They exhibit fairly frequent errors in pronunciation, grammar, and writing conventions that may impede meaning.	Students performing at mastery of this level of English language proficiency communicate adequately in complex, cognitively demanding situations. They exhibit some errors in pronunciation, grammar, and writing conventions that usually do not impede meaning.	Students performing at mastery of this level of English language proficiency communicate effectively with various audiences on a wide range of topics, though they may need further enhancement and refinement of English language skills to reach the native level of their peers. They may exhibit a few errors in pronunciation, grammar, and writing conventions that do not impede meaning.
Listening	They can understand brief, very simple speech on familiar topics, with visual support.	They can understand brief, simple speech on mostly familiar topics, and need visual support.	They can understand speech on familiar and some unfamiliar topics, and may need some visual support.	They can understand social and academic speech at their grade level, and may need some visual support for unfamiliar topics.	They can understand a variety of social and academic speech at their grade level.
Speaking	They can respond to simple social talk and academic instruction by using gestures or a few words or phrases, or very simple subject-predicate sentences.	They can engage in basic social talk and academic instruction by using phrases or simple subject-predicate sentences.	They can engage in social talk and academic instruction using increasingly detailed sentences.	They can engage in social talk and academic instruction using detailed sentences and expanded vocabulary.	They can engage in social talk and academic instruction using varied sentence structures and vocabulary appropriate to the context.
Reading	With assistance, they can read very brief text with simple sentences and familiar vocabulary, supported by graphics or pictures.	With assistance, they can read brief text with simple sentences and mostly familiar vocabulary, supported by graphics or pictures.	They can independently read simple text with mostly familiar vocabulary, and can read more complex text supported by graphics or pictures.	They can independently read text near grade level, and can read technical text supported by graphics or pictures.	They can independently read grade-level text, including technical text.
Writing	They can write words, phrases and very simple sentences.	They can write phrases and simple sentences.	They can write simple texts with support.	They can write texts near grade level.	They can write expanded texts appropriate to their grade level.

Idaho English Language Development Standards Statements — Grades K–2

Standard 1: Listening

Students demonstrate comprehension of social and academic oral communication used in the classroom.

Standard 2: Speaking

Students use speaking skills to ask and answer questions and describe familiar experiences or interests. Students speak in a manner that guides the listener to understand important ideas by using clear, coherent sentences.

Standard 3: Reading

Students apply oral language skills to develop reading skills and to recognize that print represents spoken language. Students decode grade level words, read with fluency, and comprehend connected text. Students apply knowledge of common synonyms, antonyms and word parts to determine the meaning of unknown words.

Students begin to identify plot and describe characters in stories. Students use a variety of comprehension strategies to understand material that may be used to answer specific questions or gather information.

Standard 4: Writing

Students use the writing process approach to write for a specific purpose. Students draw pictures and write words and sentences to express meaning. Students use grade-level-appropriate spelling, punctuation, capitalization, and sentence structure.

Idaho English Language Development Standards Statements — Grades 6–8

Standard 1: Listening

Students demonstrate comprehension of social and academic speech used in the classroom. Students acquire skills in listening that allow them to access information about various subjects. Students demonstrate comprehension of the content of oral presentations.

Standard 2: Speaking

Students use speaking skills to communicate for various purposes and audiences. Students develop and deliver oral presentations that maintain a focus on main ideas and significant details. Students speak in a manner that guides the listener to understand important ideas by using correct grammar and vocabulary.

Standard 3: Reading

Students use Greek and Latin root words and affixes, rules of syllabication, and context clues to decode and analyze the meaning of unknown words in increasingly complex text. Students interpret words with multiple meanings to understand vocabulary across content areas. Students independently read grade-level-appropriate text with fluency for different purposes and audiences.

Students describe and connect the essential ideas, arguments, and perspectives of the text by using knowledge of structure, organization, and purpose to understand expository and literary text. Students read increasingly difficult grade-level-appropriate text and respond critically by analyzing literary techniques and story elements.

Standard 4: Writing

Students use all five steps of the writing process to write for a variety of purposes and audiences. Students use grade-level-appropriate sentence types, grammatical forms, spelling, punctuation, and capitalization.

Students write in a variety of formats to generate, record, and reflect upon ideas. Students choose an appropriate format for a particular writing task. Students write compositions and reports that relate to a central idea, contain supporting details, and are logically sequenced.

Idaho English Language Development Standards Statements — Grades 9–12

Standard 1: Listening

Students demonstrate comprehension of social and academic speech used in the classroom. Students acquire skills in listening that allow them to access information about various subjects. Students demonstrate comprehension of the content of oral presentations.

Standard 2: Speaking

Students use speaking skills to communicate for various purposes and audiences. Students develop and deliver oral presentations that maintain a focus on main ideas and significant details. Students speak in a manner that guides the listener to understand important ideas by using correct grammar and vocabulary.

Standard 3: Reading

Students use Greek and Latin root words and affixes, and context clues to decode and analyze the meaning of unknown words in increasingly complex text. Students interpret words with multiple meanings to understand vocabulary across content areas. Students independently read grade-level-appropriate text with fluency for different purposes and audiences.

Students comprehend informational and literary text by using knowledge of text features, key vocabulary, and other contextual clues. Students summarize main ideas, theses, and critical details in text. Students read increasingly difficult text at grade-level and respond critically by making inferences, drawing conclusions, and analyzing literary techniques and story elements.

Standard 4: Writing

Students use all five steps of the writing process to write for a variety of purposes and audiences. Students use grade-level-appropriate sentence types, grammatical forms, spelling, punctuation, and capitalization.

Students write in a variety of formats to generate, record, and reflect upon ideas. Students choose an appropriate format for a particular writing task. Students write compositions and research reports that relate to a thesis, contain supporting details, and are logically sequenced.
